A gripping and atmospheric thriller that explores the dark corners of human nature and the lengths we will go to protect our loved ones.

David Hewson

David Hewson is an award-winning author and screenwriter. His previous novels include the Richard and Judy Book Club selection The Killing of Tony Blair and the highly praised The House of Shadows. He has also written for television, including the hit series Spooks and The Fixer.

Judges' Comments

“ "The Wolf Den is a masterful thriller that kept us on the edge of our seats from beginning to end. David Hewson's writing is taut and suspenseful, and his characters are complex and believable. We were particularly impressed by the way he explored the dark corners of human nature and the lengths we will go to protect our loved ones."

About the Costa Book Awards

The Costa Book Awards are one of the most prestigious literary awards in the UK. They were founded in 1971 and are awarded annually to recognize the best books written in English by authors from the UK and Ireland. The awards are divided into five categories: First Novel, Novel, Biography, Poetry, and Children's Book.

The Costa Book of the Year is the overall winner of the five category awards. It is a highly coveted award and is considered one of the most important literary prizes in the world.
