The first volume of the light novel series introduces us to Lugh and his fellow heroes. Lugh is a skilled assassin, but he is also a kind and caring person. He is always willing to help others, even if it means putting himself in danger. The other heroes are all very powerful, but they are also arrogant and selfish. They only care about their own glory, and they are not interested in helping others.

Lugh quickly realizes that he is not as strong as the other heroes. However, he also realizes that his assassin skills are much more powerful than he thought. He begins to use his skills to help others and to fight against the forces of evil. Lugh's assassin skills are unique, and they allow him to defeat enemies that the other heroes cannot. He is able to use his stealth to sneak up on enemies and to kill them with a single blow. He is also able to use his poison to weaken enemies and to make them more vulnerable to attack.

I highly recommend this light novel series to fans of isekai and fantasy.
